Let's Make Work Better:
Strategies for Improving Happiness in Your Worklife

Monday, January 11, 2016 • 12:00 - 1:00 pm
Room 2-233 • Carlson School of Management • West Bank Campus
Or, Join via WebEx: www.webex.com Meeting# 749 963 533

Presenter
Theresa M. Glomb, PhD
Professor
Carlson School of Management
Center for Human Resources and Labor Studies

Theresa M. Glomb is the Toro Company-David M. Lilly Chair in the Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota.

She received her Ph.D. in social, organizational, and individual differences psychology from the University of Illinois and her B.A. in psychology from DePaul University. She examines the role of affect and well-being at work. Her research suggests the important role of work events and mood in predicting on the job behavior and employee well-being.

She has conducted field research in dozens of companies, including several Fortune 500 firms, and her work has been published in top management journals such as the Academy of Management Journal and the Journal of Applied Psychology and cited in media outlets such as the Wall Street Journal and Huffington Post.

The P&A Brown Bag Lunch Series is presented by the Professional Development and Recognition Subcommittee.
All Are Welcome.

This brown bag presentation will be available on the P&A Senate website after the presentation.

The University of Minnesota is an equal opportunity educator and employer.
To request disability accommodations, please contact Sherri Boone at boone024@umn.edu.