Community Engagement: What Does It Have to Do with Me?

Should P&A Employees for whom community engagement is not part of their job duties participate in campus community engagement efforts? If so, how and why?

We will explore what community engagement is, best practices, and potential ways to contribute to community engagement efforts on your campus.

Wednesday, March 2, 2016
12:00 - 1:00pm
Humanities Fine Arts Building, Room 45
304 Cougar Circle
Morris Campus
or via Webex: webex.umn.edu #748 833 769

Presenter
Argie Manolis
Coordinator
Office of Community Engagement

Argie Manolis, a Morris Academic Staff Award and 2010 Morris Human Rights Award winner, is engaged in service-learning and coordinating community engagement projects that bring people of a variety of backgrounds together to accomplish common goals. In carrying out the mission of the Office of Community Engagement, she seeks to bring together members of the broader community and University of Minnesota, Morris students, Faculty, and staff in meaningful, reciprocal course-based and co-curricular partnerships.

All Are Welcome.
This Brown Bag session will be available on the P&A Senate website 24 hours after the presentation.
